

INVITE YOU TO

TURNING THE TIDE OF TRADE CONFERENCE

CHARLESTON
OCTOBER 2024

An engaging experience of cultural connections and trade partnerships between Africans and African Americans.

Date:

October 18–22, 2024

Venue:

Charleston Tech Center

997 Morrison Drive
Charleston,
South Carolina
USA

WHY CHARLESTON

Charleston is the port of entry for 50% of all enslaved Africans taken into America.

Hence the significance of the city hosting the conference on “turning the tide of the trans-Atlantic slave trade.”

The conference creates a historical opportunity of reversing the tragic consequences of the trans-Atlantic slave trade by laying a foundation of rekindled relationships and new trade opportunities between Africans and African Americans.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Rebuilding strategic relationships within African and African American communities.

Establishing business and trade partnerships through prophetic and progressive interactions.

Visits to historical sites related to the trans-Atlantic slave trade and African American heritage.

Celebration showcasing African and African American cultures.
